

TASIS Website Privacy Policy

TASIS Schools respects your privacy and are committed to protecting it. We provide this Privacy Statement to inform you of the choices you can make about the way your information is collected online and how that information is used. We have structured our websites so that, in general, you can visit <https://www.lestapies.tasis.com/websites> without identifying yourself or revealing any personal information. We make this notice readily available on our home page and at the bottom of the <https://www.lestapies.tasis.com/> Web page.

Please Note: This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by our websites. We encourage you when using any of the links provided on our website to be aware when you leave it and to read the privacy statements of each and every website that collects personally identifiable information. We do use a third-party provider, "Squarespace" to host and manage our website. You can view their own Privacy Policy at: <https://www.squarespace.com/privacy/>

Use of Personal Information

We do not collect any personal information through this website unless you voluntarily provide it by sending us e-mail, participating in a survey, or completing an on-line form. Personal information submitted will not be transferred to any non-affiliated third parties unless otherwise stated at the time of collection. When you submit personally identifiable information it is used only for the purpose stated at the time of collection.

Cookies

Our website uses cookies, which are small text files placed on your computing device to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information is used to track visitor use of the website and to compile statistical reports on website activity. Cookies help us provide you with a good experience when you browse our website. Cookies do not collect any data that enables you to be personally identifiable while on our site. You can exercise some control over most cookies through your browser settings (e.g. Explorer, Chrome or Safari).

We also use third-party services such as YouTube for video, as well as Facebook, Flickr, Instagram, SoundCloud, Twitter, and LinkedIn. These services will often store their own cookies. You can amend your cookie settings at any time directly on the third-party websites.

We do not use cookies to store personal data or information nor use them to identify individuals.

Cookies we use

Like most standard website servers, we use website statistic packages such as Google Analytics to analyse trends in how our website is accessed and utilized. Information monitored includes internet protocol (IP) addresses, geographic location of visitors (country, city), browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, platform type, date/time stamp, time spent on pages, and keywords used to find our site via search engines.

This information is anonymised and cannot be directly linked to individual users. We may use it to identify high-use or low-use areas of the site, pinpoint problem areas of the site, analyse broad demographic trends in our visitors and make decisions about how to make it easier for people to find and navigate our website.

Security

Our websites take every precaution to protect our users' personal information. Whenever you submit personal information (such as contact or credit card information) via online forms, registration or online purchase, upon submission that information is encrypted via SSL (Secured Sockets Layer). Servers that store personally identifiable information are held in a physically secure environment. We do not, under any circumstance, retain credit card details on our website servers.

Non-secured Communications

Posts to discussion forums, discussion boards, comments to blogs, and Alumni Class Notes are viewable by other users. When these areas are not in a password-protected area, they may be viewable by the general public. Please be aware of this when posting personal information in these areas.
